

SCRIPTURAL FOUNDATION

2 CORINTHIANS 6:18

“And I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to Me,” Says the Lord Almighty.

REVELATION 5:11-13

Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing.” And every created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying, “To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever.”

REVELATION 17:14

These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and Chosen and faithful.”

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

DESCRIPTION

God’s grace is abounding as we look to the cross and all that he accomplished; therefore, we can reverently proclaim that Jesus is worthy of our praise.

VERSES

There is no better explanation of the verses of this song than that offered by the author of the song as he says,

“The verses are all about His majesty and what He has done, how He spoke the world into existence, how He brings order to our chaos, how He has made orphans and sinners His sons and daughters! By taking our place on the Cross, He bore our sin and went to the grave so that we may be set free, so that we may be forgiven. It's an amazing thought, and the verses are saying look at this amazing God. He creates the stars, brings the chaos back into order. He shakes the whole earth with thunder. It's the story that God has written, and a story that He lets us be a part of. It's a song of celebration.”

CHORUS

As a song of celebration the chorus celebrates the things God has done. Yet, the chorus is particularly focusing our attention away from the amazing declarations about God, and to Him (Jesus) who makes it possible to celebrate because of the amazing act of grace and love displayed in His person and work. Thus, we remember in the chorus that this song is not only an act of celebratory worship of the things of God, but is an act of worship directed to the very person of God in our Lord Jesus Christ.

BRIDGE

The bridge furthers this act of worship by calling the individual to join in the heavenly song/declaration about Jesus (Rev. 5:11-13).